Mr. Armuga Mudr's deputation for special duty in the Palace at Mysore was approved by Govt. in order No 15680-1 / Mis 2406 dated the 5th May 1903.

In his letter No 22 dated the 20th May, 1903, to the Durbar Physician, Mr. Armuga Mudr requests to know what pay and allowances he has to draw during his employment in the Palace. He also states that he has engaged a carriage on a hire of Rs 40/- a month and requests that he may be given Carriage allowance. In forwarding this letter to Govt, the Durbar Physician states that "as a mark of the trust placed in Mr. Armuga Mudr by putting him in his present charge and also because of the responsibility of the duties entrusted to him he ought to get some increase of emolument" & that "in addition the temporary nature of the charge precludes him from bringing his family with him and consequently entails additional expense on him". He also states that for the same reason he would recommend that Rs: 40/- a month may be allowed to Mr. Armuga Mudr for Carriage hire.

Mr. Armuga Mudr's pay as Resident Medical Officer of the Victoria Hospl at Bangalore is Rs: 500 + an allowce of Rs 100/- per mensem. The two Med. Officers attached for the Palace Duty, Viz Mr. K. Mc. Appaiya, Apte to the Durbar Surgeon, and Mr. C. G. Hanumanta Singh, Apte Surgeon now on leave, are each allowed a Carriage allowce of Rs: 25/- a month. Mr. B. D. Raghavendra Row, Apte Surgeon in charge of the Md Dr's Estt, is allowed a Conveyance allowce of Rs: 40/- a month.

Submitted for orders.

Note Contd

In his letter No 4477 dated the 18th June, 1903, the Senior Surgeon reports that during the absence of Mr. T. V. Arumugam Mudr on special duty at Mysore, he had appointed Mr. N. Ranga Char, Sub Assistant Surgeon attached to the Victoria Hospital, as Resident Medical Officer of that Hospital from 1st April to 4th June, 1903, both days inclusive, and requests that the appointment so made may be notified and the Comptroller authorized to disburse the Resident Medical Officer's allowance to Mr. N. Ranga Char, as Mr. Arumugam Mudr is entitled to draw his daily batta for the period he was on special duty at Mysore.

The allowance referred to is not the allowance attached to the office of the Resident Medical Officer as stated by the Senior Surgeon but a local allowance (Rs 100/- p m) sanctioned to Mr. T. V. Arumugam Mudaliar in consideration of his past services and of his transfer to the Victoria Hospital Bangalore. It is therefore* doubtful how this allowance could be sanctioned to Mr Rangachar. Who may therefore be allowed to draw the acting allowance on the pay of the Resident. Medical Officer.

I think so too. The allce cannot be paid to both the Offrs: and it is obviously unfair to deprive Dr. Armugam — when he was called away for temporary work — not of his own seeking

Instead of sending an order like this, may we not make an enquiry and there decide? I am told that Ranga Chari did all Arunga's work during the latter's absence. In Govt Prop No G 283-5 of 22-7-03
Govt declined to sanction any allowance to Mr. N. Ranga Chari and directed that Mr. T. V. Arunga Iyer might be given the pay and allowance he was drawing as Resident Medical Officer of the Victoria Hospital, together with a Carriage allowance of Rs: 40/. a month during the period of his employment on special duty at Mysore.

In his letter to the Senior Surgeon, No 2149 of 27-7-03, the Surgeon in charge states that Sub Assistant Surgeon Mr N. Ranga Char was duly posted to relieve Dr Arumugam Mudr on 1-4-03 during the latter's absence at Mysore, with orders to sleep at night in the vacant Matron's quarters and that the Sub Assistant Surgeon carried out the duties of the Resident Medical Officer to his satisfaction, that is, as well as could be expected from one of so little experience, and recommends strongly that the Sub Asst Surgeon may be granted an allowance for the period he acted for Dr Arumuga Mudr, if it is permissible.

Could such a conclusion be compatible with a formal charge?

In submitting the above letter, the Offg Senior Surgeon states that he feels sure that it was never the intention of Col: Benson that Mr Ranga Char should do Dr Arumuga Mudr's duties without drawing the local allowance that when Mr Mahomed Usman was posted to the Victoria Hospital, Col Benson left it to the Medical Officer in charge to post either Mr Mahomed Usman or Mr Ranga Char to act for Dr Arumugam whichever whichever the Med. Officer thought best fitted for the work and that accordingly Dr. Ranga Char was appointed, as he had been a good while in the Hospital and was acquainted with the routine.

The Offg: Senior Surgeon adds that the above arrangement should have been reported to Govt, but that it was apparently omitted by oversight. This may be overlooked 2 Chief Q.
